SECTION B: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME 2012/13 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2014/15

B1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time students who are 2012/13 cohort students on courses of higher education in 2014/15 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students who normally live in Wales and study at a publicly funded UK university or college, will be able to apply for a non means-tested fee loan of up to £3,685, to cover all or the first part of their tuition fee. These students will also be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £5,315 to cover the difference between the maximum £3,685 fee loan and the actual fee charged by the University or College (up to a maximum of £9,000). The non-means tested fee grant does not have to be repaid.

Full-time students who will be 2012/13 cohort students in higher education in 2014/15 studying specifically designated courses at private institutions within the UK will have access to a non means-tested fee loan of up to £6,000 to cover all or part of the costs of their tuition fee.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition fee support available will be reduced in relation to certain courses of initial teacher training, sandwich courses, study years abroad and the final academic years of courses which require reduced levels of study. The tuition fee support available for certain courses of initial teacher training, and the final academic years of courses which require reduced levels of study will be up to £4,500 for those provided at publicly funded institutions (non means-tested fee loan of up to £1,835 and non means-tested fee grant of up to £2,665 to cover the difference between the maximum £1,835 fee loan and the actual fee charged by the University or College) and a non means-tested fee loan of up to £3,000 for those provided at private institutions.

Students studying a year abroad or work placement year as part of courses provided by institutions in Wales or England

Students who started their studies on or after 1 September 2012 who undertake a year abroad placement (for either study or work within the ERASMUS scheme, and for a study placement outside of the ERASMUS scheme) will be charged a tuition fee up to 15% of the institution's maximum fee cap (this would be up to £1,350 where the higher tuition fee amount is permitted and up to £600 (Welsh institutions) or £900 (English institutions) where the basic amount is permitted). Eligible students will have access to fee support of up to the maximum tuition fee charged, which will be paid as 50% tuition fee loan and 50% fee grant*. The maximum tuition fee loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions in this situation will be £900 (no fee grant is payable for courses at private institutions).

Students who started their studies on or after 1 September 2012 who undertake a work placement year as part of a sandwich course will be charged a tuition fee up to 20% of the institution's maximum fee cap (this would be up to £1,800 for students attending institutions where the higher tuition fee amount is permitted and up to £800 (Welsh institutions) and £1,200 (English institutions) where the basic amount is permitted). Eligible students will have access to fee support of up to the maximum tuition fee charged, which will be paid as 50% tuition fee loan and 50% fee grant*. The maximum tuition fee loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions in this situation will be £1,200 (no fee grant is payable for courses at private institutions).

*Where the fee charged is less than the maximum chargeable amount, the tuition fee loan entitlement will still be 50% of the maximum fee chargeable. The remainder of the fee charged will be paid as fee grant.

Students studying a year abroad or work placement year as part of courses provided by institutions in Northern Ireland or Scotland

Students starting their courses at universities or colleges in Northern Ireland or Scotland, and who are undertaking a year abroad placement (for either study or work within the ERASMUS scheme, or a study placement outside of the ERASMUS scheme) in 2014/15, will continue to be subject to the student support arrangements in 2014/15 that applied in 2013/14. Those students undertaking an ERASMUS year will continue to be eligible for a fee waiver, and will therefore receive no fee support in relation to their year abroad. Students undertaking other types of year abroad placements, work placements or sandwich placements will continue to be eligible for £4,500 worth of tuition fee support, made up of a maximum tuition fee loan of £1,835 and a maximum tuition fee grant of £2,665. The maximum tuition loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions in this situation will be £3,000.

B2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee support detailed in B1, full-time 2012/13 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,161;
- (2) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (3) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.
- (4) Eligible students in receipt of an award on or after 1 September 2014 will be entitled to a Welsh Government Grant and /or loan instead of an Assembly Learning Grant and/or loan. The amounts payable will not be affected, but the title of the award has changed for all cohorts.

TABLES B3 & B4 – AMOUNTS OF WELSH GOVERNMENT LEARNING GRANT (OR SPECIAL SUPPORT GRANT) AVAILABLE FOR ILLUSTRATIVE LEVELS OF HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Table B3 applies to students who are undertaking full-time courses including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. Table B4 applies to students who are undertaking full-time courses, including full-time initial teacher training (ITT) courses, and who are eligible for the Special Support Grant.

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. The Welsh Government Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section G (part-time support).

TABLE B5 – HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION SCALE

Table B5 sets out the assessed household contribution that full-time entrants will be assessed for in 2014/15, for illustrative levels of household income.

For details of other loan and grant support that is available to full-time new entrants, see section F.

SECTION C: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING 2011/12 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2014/15

Note: This section applies to all full time entrants, irrespective of whether they will be at publicly funded or privately funded institutions.

C1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time 2011/12 cohort students who will be continuing students on designated higher education courses in 2014/15 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students continuing to study in Wales or England will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,465 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution. Students continuing to study in Northern Ireland will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,685 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution.

Students who normally live in Wales and study at a University or College in the United Kingdom which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of these fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,465 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year). The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition charge payable, and therefore the maximum tuition loan entitlement, for courses, including sandwich courses, where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution will be £1,725 where the student attends an institution in Wales, Scotland or England, and £1,835 where the student attends an institution in Northern Ireland.

C2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time 2011/12 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,780;
- (2) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (3) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

For new entrants in academic year 2011/12, the Welsh National Bursary was integrated into the HE statutory support system as an integral part of the Welsh Government Learning and Special Support Grants. The Welsh Government's statutory student support arrangements for living costs are for Welsh domiciled students only (namely students who are ordinarily resident in Wales). Institutions are no longer required to pay a minimum national bursary to new entrants from 2011/12 but can continue to make their own institutional awards

SECTION D: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING 2010/11 COHORT STUDENTS IN 2014/15

Note: This section applies to all full-time entrants, irrespective of whether they will be at publicly funded or privately funded institutions.

D1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time 2010/11 cohort students who will be continuing students to higher education in 2014/15 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study. Students continuing to study in Wales or England will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,465 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution. Students continuing to study in Northern Ireland will be able to apply for a non means-tested loan of up to £3,685 depending on the actual fee charged by their institution.

Students who normally live in Wales and study at a University or College in the United Kingdom which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of these fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,465 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year. The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Rates in Special Cases

The maximum tuition charge payable, and therefore the maximum tuition loan entitlement, for courses, including sandwich courses, where a student spends a significant time during the year away from his or her institution will be £1,725 where the student attends an institution in Wales or England, and £1,835 where the student attends an institution in Northern Ireland, and £640* where the student attends an institution in Scotland...

*This figure may be subject to change.

D2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time 2010/11 cohort students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs of up to £5,161;
- (2) A means-tested bursary. Students with a household income of £18,370 or less, who are attending a university or college in Wales could apply for a minimum bursary of £347 from their institution. Students who are eligible for the full £5,161 Welsh Government Learning Grant or Special Support Grant for living costs, who are attending a university or college in Northern Ireland, and who are being charged the maximum £3,685 fee, may be entitled to a minimum bursary of £369 from their institution.
- (3) The basic student loan for living costs shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (4) Certain students will be potentially eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.

The support available for ITT courses starting on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years will depend on whether it is undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. The Welsh Government Learning Grant and Special Support Grant are fully means-tested for all students who start their studies on or after 1 September 2010 and future academic years.

Students who start a part-time course of ITT on or after 1 September 2010 including the flexible provision provided by the Open University in Wales are eligible for the standard part-time student support package set out at section G (part-time support).

SECTION E: SUPPORT AVAILABLE TO FULL-TIME STUDENTS WHO WILL BE CONTINUING NEW SYSTEM STUDENTS IN 2014/15

Note: This section applies to full time students who started higher education courses in academic years 2006/07, 2007/08, 2008/09 and 2009/10 and those eligible gap year students who started courses in academic year 2010/11 (together to be known as “new system students”).

E1: SUPPORT FOR FEES

The level of fee which full-time new system students who will be continuing students in higher education in 2014/15 will be expected to pay will be dependent on where and what they choose to study.

New system students who normally live in Wales, are studying in Wales, and being charged variable tuition fees, may be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee loan of up to £1380 a year, for the duration of their course. In addition they can apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £2,085 to cover the remaining fee (depending on how much they are charged). The fee grant does not have to be repaid.

New system students who normally live in Wales and study at an English university or college that are charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan of up to £3,465 to cover some or all of those fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow). New system students who normally live in Wales and study at an institution in Northern Ireland which is charging variable tuition fees, will be able to take out a non-income assessed tuition fee loan of up to £3,685 to cover some or all of their fees (depending on how much they are charged and how much they wish to borrow).

For students who normally live in Wales and are studying at an English or Northern Ireland university or college that is not charging variable tuition fees, the tuition fee chargeable could be any amount up to a maximum of £1,380 and £1,465 respectively and students can apply for a tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Students who normally live in Wales and study in Scotland will be charged £1,820 a year for most courses, except medicine where the fee is £2,895 a year. The charges will apply to all four years of Scottish degree courses. Students can apply for a non income-assessed tuition fee loan to cover some or all of this cost.

Maximum Fee Support in Special Cases

The maximum tuition fee support available will be reduced in relation to certain courses, including sandwich courses where a student spends a significant amount of time away from their institution and courses provided in conjunction with overseas institutions where a student spends a significant amount of time abroad.

New system students who normally live in Wales and study such courses in Wales may be eligible to apply for a non means-tested fee grant of up to £1,045. This grant does not have to be repaid. In addition they can apply for a non-means tested fee loan of up to £680. New system students who normally live in Wales and study such courses in England will be eligible to apply for a non-means tested fee loan of up to £1,725, whereas students studying such courses in Northern Ireland will be eligible to apply for a non-means tested fee loan of up to £1,835, and £640 where the student attends an institution in Scotland. The level of this fee loan will vary according to the tuition fee charged in relation to these specific courses and may be subject to change.

E2: SUPPORT FOR LIVING COSTS

In addition to the fee loan, continuing full-time new system students will be able to apply for:

- (1) A means-tested Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs of up to £3,000;
- (2) A means-tested bursary. Students with a household income of £18,370 or less, who are attending a university or college in Wales could apply for a minimum bursary of £347 from their institution. Students who are eligible for the full £3,000 Welsh Government Learning Grant or Special Support Grant for living costs, who are attending a university or college in Northern Ireland, and who are being charged the maximum £3,685 fee, may be entitled to a minimum bursary of £369 from their institution.
- (3) The basic student loan shown in Section A, 75% of which will not be subject to income assessment.
- (4) Certain students will be eligible for a Special Support Grant instead of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs. These students include those who (a) have dependent children and do not have a partner; (b) have dependent children and their partner is also a full-time student; or (c) are eligible for certain specified disability benefits.
- (5) For students who are continuing on courses of initial teacher training (“ITT”), the maximum amount of Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs (or, where appropriate, the Special Support Grant) available to them will depend upon the number of weeks of full-time study that they are required to attend in the year.

For students who study ITT courses full time for between 6 to 10 weeks a year, the first £664 of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs is nonmeans-tested. For students who study ITT courses full time for over 10 weeks a year, the first £1,329 of the Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs is non-means tested. Students continuing on part-time courses of ITT which began before 1 September 2010 and require less than 6 weeks in aggregate of full-time study in the academic year will not be eligible for any Welsh Government Learning Grant for living costs or Special Support Grant and will only be eligible for the non-means tested reduced rate of loan shown in table A1.

Please refer to the AY 2013/14 memorandum for full details of support available to ITT students who started a course before AY 2010/11.
